He provides also that the superintendent and board of managers of the institution shall serve for a erm of years without compensation. All members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows shall be received for treatment in the institution absolutely free of charge. A committee was also named by the grand sire yesterday to consider the advisability of a change in the printed form of charters for the several branches of Odd Fellowship. The committee, of which Enoch G. Hogate, of Danville, Ind., is chairman, composed of Representatives Norris, of Nebraska; Lindley, of Illinois; Hawkes, of Pennsylvania, and Gowdy, of Colorado. The Sovereign Grand Lodge voted yesterday to have printed in the official record of this session the admirable sermon on "Fraternity," preached in Meridian-street Meth-Church last Sunday morning by the Rev. Virgil W. Tevis, a brother Odd Fellow. The full text of the sermon will likely be secured from the Journal's report of the discourse, since it is understood Mr. Tevis prepared no manuscript. When the cash account of the Sovereign Grand Lodge was made known yesterday t developed that the increase in receipts for the past year was $4,087.24, which the subcommittee declares in its report to be

On the inside all was gayety, and jovial crowds, old and young, marked each place where punch and light refreshments were being served. The general reception committee had estimated that it would entertain 1,200 or 1,500 in the hall last night, but this number was exceeded by several hundred. Arrangements had been made for music, but none was present. This, however, did not interfere with the reception or lessen the pleasare of the evening. The members of the committee were kept busy introducing strangers and giving out information. It was learned last night on reliable au-thority that Grand Representative Deans, of Pennsylvania, will formally present the matter to the Sovereign Grand Lodge at Its present session and urge that favorable action be taken on the grand sire's suggestion. The purpose in making the third degree the qualification for admission to the Patriarchs Militant is to enlarge the membership of that branch of the order. Heretofore a man has been compelled to be a member of an encampment before he could become a Patriarch Militant and this has resulted in dwarfing the membership of the latter branch. If the innovation is adopted it will likely be with the restriction that Patriarchs Militant admitted aftter taking the third degree will be admitted only on probation and will not be allowed to hold office in that branch of the

The mineral kingdom stands by itself-it is lifeless and cannot of itself take on life. The vegetable kingdom stands apart, and no form of vegetable life can be so highly cultivated as to become animal. The vegetable, indeed, has life, but its form of life is separate and distinct from animal life. There is a great gulf fixed between each kingdom and the next the side of the lower to the higher, but which must be spanned from the side of the not push up into the vegetable realm, but the vegetable can send its roots down into the sphere of the mineral and take up its properties into its own life,

There is a corresponding difference of pinion with regard to the origin of spirtual life. Some maintain that it is merely the higher development of natural life, the result of care and culture and training. In order to introduce a person into the kingdom of Christ his mind must be developed, that he may think right, and he must be surrounded by wholesome moral influences, that his character may be properly formed and that he may be led to do right. The natural man, by dint of effort, pushes up into the spiritual as the mineral pushes up | Until her toilet is completed. into the vegetable realm.
